

You enter into a charming garden oasis of delightful flowers, shrubs, and large trees. The guest house doubles as a studio for the artist owners. The main house has a collection of antiques and California pottery. It is full of charm with handcrafted kitchen sink, 1920's crazy quilt in the living room, 1950's appliances and dinette set. The home was built in 1934.

Bill Limebrook and Lauren St. Vincent
29444 Kalina Avenue

Built in 1920, this home has the original hardwood floors, beautiful oak paneling in living room and family room with oak beamed ceilings, lovely antique chandeliers, and original front porch. Mrs. Calderon has completely remodeled the interior including the kitchen. At age 85, this is a charming home to visit!

Elizabeth Calderon
219 Riley Street

A wonderful collection of beautiful antique furniture utilized in unusual ways and paintings including Martin Roberts, a Laguna Beach artist. Lots of collections...Everywhere you look is another grouping of interesting pieces from all around the world. You will be dazzled by all of their treasures.

Tom and Ethel Fiermonte
29109 Shorecliff Drive

The Kliers have handcrafted the only log cabin in Lake Elsinore. It is constructed high in the hills of Country Club Heights with panoramic views of the lake, mountains, and city lights. The home is so unique and has been used by some locals as a landmark. There are wrap-around decks off the front, rear and master bedroom that give a 360 /view of the area. Interior is lovely with floor to ceiling china cabinet in the dining room, delightful fireplace in the living room, and paneled walls throughout.

Ron and Alice Klier
17773 Sunnyslope Avenue

With majestic views, the property itself is almost as beautiful as the home with its built-in swimming pool and original handcrafted masonry wall. Inside in the living room is a massive stone fireplace with matching hearth. Hand painted ceramic tiles, saltillo tiles, and imported furniture decorate the home. Open the door to this one, built in 1930, you feel you are at a vacation resort.

Miguel and Ruby Flores
16919 Bell Avenue

The building was constructed at a cost of $25,000 and construction was begun in 1922. The Masonic Lodge is impressive with its beautiful tin ceiling in the main auditorium and the extensive use of gold leaf. This is your opportunity to learn about the Masonic rites and their contribution to the community.

Elsinore Masonic Lodge No, 289
114 East Graham Street